Book fair: Beth 3100 a little lower than before (1500 in scholastic dollars)

First dq night went well. Second night is this Thursday.

Wendy-Conference dinners, catering from Hy-Vee Came in under $600

The food was good and there was a lot of it. ---Melissa

Would like to see what parents are work where and maybe interested in donating to the PTO.

Send an email out to all the parents that have business

Shifting meetings, a little there will be the business part, Melissa is going to do coffee with admin. We are going to start bringing in speakers.

Next month will be on the technology, BYOD.

Please bring your ideas so we can have some more ideas.

Special person's lunch-

IT went great, last year we do the pizza option. Money we made from that will go too scholastic and hopefully each for winter break each kid will go home over the break.

Over 500 people it was a good turn out

Kristen-

Earned 130 for dq night

Not much updates.

Each grade level will get an allotment of how much they have to spend. and Anne will be able to see what is available.

There is also an allotment for transportation.

Special presentation:

Dr. Monica Potter

Early child Family Education Program Director

Balancing: home, life and school.

How can we be more intentional and have more awareness as parents?

How can we set ourselves and children up to succeed?

The Ball Story: From don't sweat the small stuff—by: Richard Carlson

Work on a schedule and work on the balance and schedule in the fun also.

Devin-
